Why Screen Recording Is Not A Good Option

Many people might be wondering why they should go to such lengths to get a TT video when they can record their screens with in-built screen recorders in their mobile phones. This can be a good option if you are not looking for an authentic video with good graphics.

A screen recorder records the entire screen. This means that a lot of useless stuff will be visible on the recorded video, such as your battery percentage, notification bar, and other screen buttons. You do not want to let other people know about your personal information. You can edit the screen-recorded video with cropping tools and cut tools, however, it will increase the labor and consumes a lot of time.

Secondly, the screen recording has poor quality. If you want others to enjoy the video, you should send them in good quality. Your audience will never enjoy a video with poor-quality pixels and mismatched audio, that can often happen. TT video downloader can download videos in HD quality and different formats.
